

BENEFITS OF REGISTRATION AS A PERSON LIVING WITH DISABILITY

- Under the Government Procurement Opportunities ((AGPO) one is entitled to 30% of Government's tenders ringfenced for women, youth and persons living with disabilities
- Tax exemption for the first Ksh.150,000 monthly income. In addition, a person is allowed to deduct a maximum of Ksh.50,000 in respect of 'home care' and 'personal care' where applicable.
- Access to Government's cash transfer program
- Tax exemption for assistive devices.
- The blind and those on wheel chairs who require personal assistance receive Ksh.15,000 monthly facilitative allowance approved by the Salaries and Remuneration Commission.
- Educational assistance from the National Council For Persons Living with Disabilities (NCPWD) based on severity of disability.
- Free sun screen lotion and lip balms to persons with albinism.
- Provision of tools of trade for those who have received vocational training.
- Consideration for duty exemption on importation of vehicles modified for use by persons with physical disabilities.
- Extension of retirement age to 65 years if one so wishes.
- Exemption from payment of parking fees by county governments.

Sources: Persons with Disability Act 2013, Legal Notice No36 of 30th March 2010, KRA Technical Circular No. 26 of 13th April 2010, the National Council for Persons with Disabilities Website and Service Charter.